Dear Sir

Knowing you in Washington I take the liberty to call on you for a favor. Having written on the 16th ult. to the Secty. of the Treasury of which communication I enclose with enclosed copy. Said communication was forwarded through Dr. Pangborn, also endorsed and recommended by Genl. Sheridan. As it is the directors of the State fair, want to know, whether I am able to undertake the job or not? However I am unable to give an answer, unless heard from the Secty. of the Treasury. I therefore most respectfully request you, to be so kind as to remind Mr. M<sup>r</sup>. Cullock of my application and would consider myself under great obligations to you, if at the same time you yourself, would speak a word in my favor. In awaiting your kind action in the above matter I remain dear Sir

Most Respectfully
 Your obedient servt.

Dear Sir:

Knowing you in Washington, I take the liberty to call on you for a favor. Having written on the 16th ult. to the Secretary of the Treasury of which communication herewith enclose copy. Said communication was forwarded through Dr. Bonzano, also endorsed and recommended by Genl. Sheridan.

As it is, the directors of the State fair want to know whether I am able to undertake the job or not? However, I am unable to give an answer, unless heard from the Secretary of the Treasury. I therefore most respectfully request you to be so kind as to remind Mr. McCulloch of my application and would consider myself under great obligations to you, if at the same time you yourself, would speak a word in my favor. I awaiting your kind action in the above matter I remain dear Sir.

Most respectfully, C.H.
Zimmermann
